Proceedings: (IN CHAMBERS) Order Re: Renewed Application for Leave to File Brief as Amicus Curiae (DE 156)

On December 29, 2016, Language Creation Society (“Amicus”) submitted a Renewed Application for Leave to File Brief as Amicus Curiae. Amicus argues, in support of Defendants’ position in the cross motions for summary judgment, that the Klingon language should not be entitled to copyright protection. The Renewed Application is now moot since the Court has issued an order on the cross motions. In any event, the Court did not reach the issue of whether a language, and specifically the Klingon language, is copyrightable in the order.

Accordingly, the Court DENIES Language Creation Society’s Renewed Application.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
