VACATION AND CONVENTIONS

As Diana and I prepare for the first true vacation (non-con) we have taken, I had to deal with a massive sinus headache that kicked my ass and cost me about 6 hours of work time. So I am way behind on emails, which will now wait till after our vacation, which while only 4 days, is incredibly necessary.

People think going to a con for Axanar is all fun and games, but it is real work. Why do you think no other fan film does conventions like Axanar does? Because they don't have the time nor inclination to do the massive amount of work it takes to do a convention! But we are professionals and this is our job. For Axanar, it is part of what we are trying to build, which is the best Star Trek production company there is. And that means we do what no other fan production does.

And we love doing it! Diana and Rob and I absolutely love meeting the fans and talking to each and every one of you. Heck, we are all geeks and love talking Star Trek.

And next is Comikazi! We will be there Friday October, 30th – Sunday, November 1st.

At the Los Angeles Convention Center!

don't have anything to do with our project other than they exist in the Star Trek universe and deal with a similar premise -- the war. Beyond that they are completely apart. That said, Axanar will have our own, directly tied-in, anthology series in due course. 😊
